

For Immediate Release:*x-span results, inc. Celebrates Ten Years in Business at ReCon 2010

Durham NC. and Las Vegas NV, May 23, 2010 – x-span results, inc, a leading provider of real estate business intelligence technology, is marking a very significant milestone of ten years in business with a brand new website, new partnerships, new clients and brand new levels service for its premier Site Decision Systems™ (SDS) solution, offering each and every client a unique blend of technology, data and service which is perfectly suited to their needs.

The celebration of ten years in business coincides with the ICSC ReCon 2010 Trade Show in Las Vegas (www.icsc.org). We invite all our friends; journalists, customers and partners to share some cake with Andy and Tracy at our booth S6730 starting at 3:00PM.

"We are so proud of the growth that x-span has achieved during the past ten years. We have been able to harness advances in technology to deliver 'anytime, anywhere' analytics to real estate decision makers. Our display will show the innovations in our trade area analysis solution. The Site Decision Systems™ platform is scalable with three levels of service only available through cloud based SaaS delivery. You can log into our website and have advanced analytics at your fingertips in less than five minutes and, when your business becomes more sophisticated, move seamlessly to more comprehensive solutions. The features, functionality and ease of use for each of the service levels are unparalleled at any price point", said Tracy Nagel, President.

Leading national retailers are successfully using SDS as a precise and cost effective system that instantly determines the quality and value of store locations. Now that the technology is readily available in the cloud, the unique features of SDS give the individual broker, franchisee or small business owner power to compete for space with large developers and retailers.

The new website, www.xspanresults.com, offers a comprehensive overview of the Site Decision Systems™ (SDS) suite of services, which offers three levels of service: Basic, Standard and Premium, to suit the needs of any size organization, from independent brokers to national retailers. Site Decision Systems™ will meet any site planning challenge with flexibility, efficiency and sophistication, with subscriptions starting at $1,895.
